Surviving winter at Turtle River State Park

What do cranberries, Jello, and shortening have to do with animal winter survival strategies? Come out to the Visitor Center classroom, Saturday, Jan. 18 at 1 p.m., to find out. Park staff and visitors will conduct some animal winter survival strategy experiments, take a hike and make birdhouses.

For ski trail grooming status contact the park, or visit North Dakota Parks and Recreation website: www.parkrec.nd.gov/activities/skiing.html. During the snow season the Chalet/Warming House is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., 7 days a week.

For more information, call (701) 594-4445, or find TRSP at www.parkrec.nd.gov. Turtle River State Park is 22 miles west of Grand Forks, North Dakota, on Highway 2.
